Some Breezy Hanalei Happenings

Professor Horne, Principal of the Boys' School in Honolulu, was a guest at the Deverill Hotel last week.

Quan Yai, one of the fifth grade pupils, has been absent from school the past two weeks on account of illness, but he is convalescent now and will probably be able to attend school again in a few days.

Miss Stewart, teacher of the Anahola school, took the Steamer Nohau for Honolulu Friday and returned the following Monday.

Friday afternoon the school garden was a busy and interesting scene. More vegetable seeds had been received during the week, which enabled the boys to finish the planting begun the week before. The first seeds planted began to peep through the ground on the third and fourth days, while within a week the beans and corn were about three inches high. Some of the residents of Hanalei say that this is the wrong time of year to secure good results from a vegetable garden; but if the interest of the boys continues, and the interest which the chickens and the pigs have assumed as sharers in the garden discontinues, there is no visible reason why fairly good results should not be obtained.

Last Friday afternoon at two-thirty the church bell sent forth its familiar tones. A few minutes later a good company of school children had assembled in the church, and, under the leadership of Mrs. Ahi, the Junior Christian Endeavor work, which had been neglected for some time, was resumed. The fifth chapter of Daniel was made the basis of an interesting temperance lesson conducted by Mrs. Ahi. The thought which each member was to hold during the week was this: "The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want." These meetings are to be continued every Friday afternoon in the church.

Saturday afternoon, October 28, Mrs. Makee gave a luncheon in honor of Mrs. Hudson of Honolulu, who has been her guest for the past few weeks. The guests present were Mrs. Hudson and her two children, Genivieve and James; Mr. and Mrs. Riedel; Mr. Menefoglio, manager of the electric power plant at Wainiha, his wife, and two children, Imogene and Conrad; Mr. and Mrs. Berkemyer; and Mrs. Newman.

About two-thirty an elaborate lunch was served with that hospitality and generosity which are so natural to Mr. and Mrs. Makee. Besides the large table, where the elder guests were seated, there was a smaller table at which were served the children, who were enjoying their repast all to themselves. The tables and diningroom were artistically decorated with flowers and delicate ferns.

The day was ideal; and after luncheon the guests enjoyed a social chat on the cool veranda while watching the waves break upon the beach. Later, beautiful Hawaiian songs were sung accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Menefoglio. As the shadows of evening began to gather the guests departed for their homes with bright faces, happy hearts, and expressions of good will.

Sunday at the Hanalei Home Diamond a game of base ball was played by the Kilauea Japanese boys and the Pick Up team of Hanalei. It was a red hot game all the way through, and well played by both teams. The Pick Up team won by a score of five to two. It was a very close game until the Hanalei boys came up and scored two runs and the Kilauea boys lost. The boys of Kilauea were good in catching, but they were afraid of Sam Kai's ball and bat them nearly all out. They made two runs by sending the ball to left field and two men came to the plate. Then they had a goose egg until the ninth inning. The Japanese boys wore beautiful uniforms.

A larger variety and more elaborate display of 1912 calendars are to be seen at the Lihue Store this season than ever. You'd better make your selection at once. Now is the time to start that pretty calendar to those far away friends if you expect to reach them before Christmas.
